The ground unit of supply officer Marozov (fnu) previously quartered in building No 38 had to vacate this building since a hospital was to be established there. The unit was to be transferred to another military post. Major Davidov (fnu), allegedly chief of operations of the central Kech office, was named for the first time in connection with the construction work. Lieutenant Colonel Kirkhukhin (fnu), who was superior to Major Koslov, but whose proper assignment was unknown, was also named for the first time. According to statements by employees of the Eberswalde special construction bureau, Oranienburg airfield was to be taken over by the VPL.<sup>4</sup> The army section of the Weisse Stadt was closely guarded. From a large distance it was seen that training was held on 6 x 37-mm AA guns west of building No 35. Some time later, the guns were parked in the garage of building No 35.<sup>5</sup>

3. Intensified security measures were enforced at all military installations after the alleged arrest of employees of the Leipzig special construction bureau in early November.
